Mint in the Media: 'The Mint Museum's rich cache of newly revealed holdings gleams as shutdowns force a reboot'

When we closed our doors to help stop the spread of COVID-19, our staff reworked our exhibition schedule to provide the Charlotte community with new, fresh installations upon reopening. Take a look at what you'll find when we re-open Sept. 25.

Curator's Pick

We are sharing pieces from our galleries and collections to help bring peace and inspiration while we all practice social distancing. Our curators have chosen these pieces to give you the museum experience from home. To see more #CuratorsPicks, follow us on our social media channels.

Tanya Aguiñiga (Mexican, active United States, 1978–). "Wall Hanging 3," 2015, cotton, felt, terracotta, copper. Museum Purchase: Funds provided by the Board of Directors of the Mint Museum of Craft + Design in honor of Fleur Bresler. 2016.34

Wall Hanging 3. Part of the series Mothering the Form, this mixed-media construction was created soon after the birth of the artist's daughter. Having a child caused Aguiñiga to pause and reflect on her own childhood, using materials that reference her bi-national upbringing—nautical rope from San Diego and clay from Tijuana. Tanya Aguiñiga is a Los Angeles-based artist, designer, and activist. Her work provokes conversation surrounding gender and nationality, and most recently, the US-Mexico border crossing calamities.
